

Exuberance II

Second event of Exuberance-2016 was organized for students of MBA, PGDM.

The first individual activity was the “Spelling Bee”-Individual competition in spelling commonly misspelt words. In which after a written test the top 5 performers were pitted against each other in a multi level spelling competition. The winners’ were Ankita Singh followed by Priyanka Kumari.

This was followed by an ‘Individual Extempore Competition’ where Saurabh Pandey emerged as the best speaker followed by Amit Kumar Singh. We also had a competition to test the reading and pronunciation skills of the students where the winner was Samidha Gupta and runner up was Pallavi Mohale. Next the students had plenty of fun and excitement in playing the team based word game ‘Pictionary’ in which the winning team was ‘The Stunners’ comprising of Rajat Singh, Shivendra Pratap, Shivam Shukla and Abhishek Prajapati.

This was followed by a video on Communication Skills in common situations; presented in an animated format which was also very well appreciated by the students. The final team building and communication skills competition was ‘Radio Show, in which the students were made to participate in teams and asked to present a Radio Program .The students had pulled together amazing performances and the final winners were Team Stunners which included Rajat Singh, Shivendra Pratap, Shivam Shukla and Abhishek Prajapati. The event wrapped up with the very valuable words of wisdom by Dr. Yash Sridhar, Academic Co-ordinator, SMS-IMS.
