

Exuberance III

The third event of Exuberance-2016 was organized at School of Management Sciences, Lucknow. Event was planned with the objective of providing a platform to MBA and PGDM first year students to express themselves freely and improve their communication and interpersonal skills. This objective was realized through a series of activities and games like, Debate Competition, Team building games, Informational videos, Word Games and other activities.

Students were welcomed and given a brief overview of the scheduled activities by Ms. Lavina Singh. Day began with an introductory video on debating skills and tips to prepare and guide them for the debate competition planned for the day. First individual competition was “Individual Debate competition”-in which students spoke on the topic of their choice with great fervor and enthusiasm. In the second round of debate the students were pitted against each other on the basis of their opinion, for or against the motion and were evaluated by the judges Mr. Satyajeet Asthana and Ms. Bhavya Visen on relevant parameters of oratory skills. Final winners were Mr. Amit Kumar Singh followed by Rajat Singh and Shalini Singh tied at the second spot.

This was followed by individual round of General Awareness quiz in which the top 10 performers were paired in teams which competed against each other in a multi stage Quiz competition based on Acronyms, Product Taglines and Issues of National Importance. The winning team of the Quiz included Samidha Gupta and Saurabh Singh. The runners up were: Abhishek Prajapati and Divya Singh. This was followed by a video on Telephone Etiquettes in common situations which was also very well appreciated by the students. Event wrapped up with the very valuable words of wisdom by Prof. (Dr.) Manoj Mehrotra Director, SMS and tips and techniques to improve communication skills by Mr. Surendra Srivastava (GM, SMS-IMS).

