

Covering Letter & Preface to SSR

School of Management Sciences, Lucknow commenced its journey of imparting quality professional education in the area of Management & Technology, in the year 2008.

SMS, Lucknow in its journey to propagate education and research has created systems that try to inculcate quality in the areas of teaching-learning, providing infrastructure resources, student support and progression, and ethical governance practices. Having achieved progress in our journey towards our mission, we are now aiming to get accreditation after becoming qualified for the same.

It is our pleasure to submit the Self-Study Report (SSR) of School of Management Sciences, Lucknow for Cycle-1 of accreditation by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), Bangalore. We take this opportunity to declare that the report (SSR) has been finalized with utmost sincerity honesty and collective effort of the faculty and staff members of SMS, Lucknow, taking into consideration of all available data from 2008 to 2016.

The SSR is duly being submitted for your valued evaluation. We at SMS, Lucknow humbly took forward to the processing of the SSR by the NAAC team and help us in achieving another milestone in our journey of imparting quality education, research and training and gain valuable insights to improve it further.
