MESSAGE

It gives me immense pleasure to know that School of Management Science, Lucknow is organising 5th International Seminar on Sources of Planet Energy, Environmental & Disaster Science (SPEEDS-2019) : Impact of Non-Conventional Energy Resources on 7th & 8th February, 2020 in association with Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam Technical University, Lucknow, The Institution of Engineers(I), UP State Centre, Lucknow, India & Council of Science and Technology, UP.

SMS, Lucknow has been imparting Engineering and Management education since its inception in 2008 and it is an extension of School of Management Sciences, Varanasi. SMS Lucknow has been awarded the Best Engineering College in North India” under the Excellence in Education, Training & Development Awards 2018 organised by Assocham in Ranchi. SMS, Lucknow is counted today, among the leading management and engineering institutes, not only in Lucknow, but in the country.

Forthcoming seminar aims at recognizing links and addressing gaps, offering strategic recommendations for exploitation of natural, renewable and non-conventional energy sources to overcome the climatic disturbances due to environmental damages, climate change risks by providing disaster management strategies and streamline the aftermath of the natural disasters and explore the probable pre and post natural disaster prevention machinery to minimize the global loss of GDP to a great extent.

I wish grand success for the seminar and convey my warm wishes for participants and organizers.
